

Toxics use reduction (TUR) activities in Canada -- People and organisations

3.5 Provincial/Territorial focus - New Brunswick

Organisation	Contact person(s)	Address	Phone	Website and/or e-mail	Description	Purpose	TUR/cancer prevention activity/ies	Members	Work(ed) with/Member of (examples)	Keywords
Agent Orange Association Of Canada	Carol Brown Parker, Co-president	42 Sunnyside Dr. GrandBay- Westfield, New Brunswick E5K 3M4		http://www.agentorangecanada.com/ E-mail: carol(at)agentorangecanada.com	Formed in 2005 by people affected by and/ or concerned about effects (especially cancer) of herbicides sprayed on Canadian Forces Base Gagetown and surrounding communities from 1956 to 1984.	Fighting for public inquiry about chemical sprayings of CFB Gagetown and surrounding areas and health effects for troops and others. Educate about herbicides' harm to wildlife, environment and people.	Information about specific pesticides (herbicides) and cancer.			Cancer Chemicals Environment Health Pesticides and alternatives
Atlantic Canadian Organic Regional Network (ACORN)	Beth McMahon, Executive Director	P. O. Box 6343 Sackville, New Brunswick E4L 1G6	506-536-2867 866-32-ACORN (22676) F: 506-536-0221	http://www.acornorganic.org E-mail: admin(at)acornorganic.org	Membership-based non-profit incorporated co-operative. Promotes organic agriculture by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • facilitating information exchange between/amongst organizations and individuals (e.g., producers directory) • co-ordinating non-formal education for producers, consumers and others • networking (regionally and nationally). 	Enhance viability and growth of Atlantic Canadian organic agricultural community through a unified regional network.	Maritime Organic Grains Network helps boost production and information about Maritime organic grains and oilseeds. Organic Berry Network helps Atlantic Canada industry access more information about organic production/research, marketing information. Information about pesticide alternatives .			Agriculture Chemicals Environment Food Health Organics Pesticides and alternatives Training/ workshops
Canadian Cancer Society, New Brunswick Division		201 - 133 Prince William St. P.O. Box 2089 Saint John, New Brunswick E2L 3T5	506-634-6272 800-455-9090 F: 506-634-3808	http://www.cancer.ca/NewBrunswick.aspx?sc_lang=en E-mail: ccsnb(at)nb.cancer.ca	Branch of national, community-based organization of volunteers. See national office listing for information.	Eradication of cancer and enhancement of quality of life of people living with cancer. (Also see Canadian Cancer Society national office.)	Pesticide-free New Brunswick campaign. Smoking bans. Children's Environmental Health Strategy for Action . For other activities, see national site.		New Brunswick Anti-Tobacco Coalition	Cancer Chemicals Children Environment Health Household products NGO Occupation Pesticides and alternatives Smoking Training/ workshops

Organisation	Contact person(s)	Address	Phone	Website and/or e-mail	Description	Purpose	TUR/cancer prevention activity/ies	Members	Work(ed) with/Member of (examples)	Keywords
Citizens' Coalition for Clean Air	Gordon Dalzell, Co-chair	32 Dorothea Dr. Saint John, New Brunswick E2J 3J1	506-696-3510	E-mail: dalmar(at)nbnet.nb.ca	Works with various stakeholders (e.g., industry, government, other community groups) for positive changes in air quality. Promotes public presentations in regulatory processes, use of alternative energy sources and reducing greenhouse gases.	Promote and advocate for clean air. Raise public awareness of air pollution.	Cosmetic pesticide ban. Children and environmental health. Air quality (particularly in St. John) and environmental assessments.		New Brunswick Environmental Network	Air quality Chemicals Children Environment Health Pesticides and alternatives Surveillance Training/ workshops
Conservation Council of New Brunswick (CCNB)	Inka Milewski, Science Advisor; Director of Healthwatch (in Bathurst)	180 St. John St. Fredericton, New Brunswick E3B 4A9	506-458-8747 F: 506-458-1047	http://conservationcouncil.ca E-mail: info(at)conservationcouncil.ca; healthwatch(at)conservationcouncil.ca	Environmental organisations going since 1969, with broadly-based membership from around province. Programmes include: • marine conservation • sustainable agriculture • environmental health (now Health Watch) • forest conservation • climate action. Health Watch raises public awareness about role of environmental quality in health. Does research to enable Council to educate decision-makers about environment-health connections in province.	Create awareness of environmental problems and advocate solutions through research, education and interventions. Founding purpose and mandate include trying to prevent future pollution and have corrected pollution that has already occurred.	Past campaigns to: • reduce pesticide use • eliminate mercury in air emissions • build awareness about endocrine disrupting chemicals • deal with arsenic from a coal-fired power plant Health Watch Program: • analyzing cancer data for 14 communities (first report out) • Children's Environmental Health Strategy for Action • study of environmentally-attributable deaths in province • clean-up of Belle-dune Smelter and community lead exposures (includes CD of Radio Canada's Belledune - Zone sacrifice) • analysing/explaining community health "risk assessments" (CD: Toxic trespass: A Tale of three cities) • publications by Council staff, others		Canadian Partnership for Children's Health and Environment Ecojustice Friends of the Earth New Brunswick	Agriculture Air quality Cancer Chemicals Children Environment Health Household products Mining NGO Occupation Pesticides and alternatives Pollution prevention Research Surveillance Training/ workshops Waste Water quality Workplaces

Organisation	Contact person(s)	Address	Phone	Website and/or e-mail	Description	Purpose	TUR/cancer prevention activity/ies	Members	Work(ed) with/Member of (examples)	Keywords
Eco-House Inc.	Jeff Kennett, Marketing & Sales	P.O. Box 220, Station A Fredericton, New Brunswick E3B 4Y9	506-366-3529 877-ECO- HOUSE F: 506-366- 3577	http://www.eco-house.com/ E-mail: henry(at)eco-house.com	Three lines of products: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> inorganic mineral paint (aka silicate dispersion paint), specialty paint for concrete, stucco, masonry and artistic mural painting fine oil painting supplies wood finishes. Not totally non-toxic.	Design and manufacture chemical products with minimal environmental impact. As much as possible, use renewable or abundantly available natural raw materials, while offering highest technical and health safety standards.	Products contain fewer and less-toxic substances.			Air quality Business Chemicals Environment Green purchasing Health Household products Occupation Pollution prevention
New Brunswick Environmental Network	Mary Ann Coleman, Coordinator (Waterford)	432 - 236 St. George St. Moncton, New Brunswick E1C 1W1 167 Creek Rd. Waterford, New Brunswick E4E 4L7	Moncton: 506-855-4144 Waterford: 506-433-6101 F: 506-433-6111	http://www.nben.ca/nben_index.htm E-mail: nben(at)nben.ca	Established in 1991, communication network links more than 80 non-profit environmental organisations. Steering Committee representatives chosen from each of Youth, First Nations, Francophone and Anglophone groups. Provides educational opportunities and encourages growth of environmental movement in New Brunswick. Not an advocacy group.	Encourage and facilitate networking and communication among member groups to advance their work to protect the Earth, promote ecologically-sound ways of life and strengthen environmental movement in New Brunswick.	Reports and consultation documents. Links to materials from caucuses for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> children and environmental health pesticides (including cosmetic bans, campaigns about spraying Gagetown base) mining (opposition to uranium exploration and mining, nuclear power). 	See list on website.	Canadian Environmental Network	Air quality Chemicals Children Environment First Nations Health Household products Mining Network Nuclear Pesticides and alternatives Pollution prevention Schools Training/workshops Waste Water quality

Organisation	Contact person(s)	Address	Phone	Website and/or e-mail	Description	Purpose	TUR/cancer prevention activity/ies	Members	Work(ed) with/Member of (examples)	Keywords
New Brunswick Lung Association	Barb MacKinnon, Director of Environmental Science	65 Brunswick St. Fredericton, New Brunswick E3B 1G5	506-455-8961 x 103 F: 506-462-0939	http://www.nb.lung.ca/ E-mail: Email(at)nb.lung.ca	Provincial wing of national non-profit volunteer-based association. Concerned with all aspects of lung diseases -- ranging from asthma to COPD and cancer -- and their prevention. Lead for national Lung Association's Environmental Issues Working Group. Run Canadian Network for Human Health and the Environment and New Brunswick Climate Change Hub.	Dedicated to good health through prevention of lung disease and promotion of wellness by advocacy, with education, and through research.	Activities include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • tobacco education programmes and advocacy for related legislation • indoor air quality programme (homes, schools, workplaces, scents, air cleaners, heating) • outdoor air quality programme • pushing for province-wide cosmetic pesticide ban, reducing coal burning and radon exposures Environmental health mapping combines air quality, climate, respiratory health data and other information for visualization, analysis, and decision-making.		New Brunswick Environmental Network	Air quality Chemicals Children Environment Health Household products Mapping NGO Pesticides and alternatives Pollution prevention Schools Training/workshops Water quality Workplaces
New Brunswick Partners in Agriculture	Gabrielle Kretzschmar, Vice-President/Treasurer	#10 Big K Ranch Lane Upper Hampstead, New Brunswick E5M 1X6	506-488-2407 F: 506-488-2980	E-mail: bigkranch(at)nb.ai bn.com	Agricultural producer organization.	Dedicated to advancement of New Brunswick farm families through education, awareness, communication and advocacy.	Sustainable agriculture, including lobbying and participation in consultations about federal Chemicals Management Plan. Also educate about food safety. Children's Environmental Health Strategy for Action activities.		New Brunswick Environmental Network	Agriculture Chemicals Children Environment Food Health